

RESOLD AND MANAGED PALO ALTO NETWORKS PRODUCT SERVICE DESCRIPTION

If the Binary Defense Services provided to Client identify the resale of, or Binary Defense's management, provision or access to Palo Alto Networks products and services, the following applies. With respect to Palo Alto Networks products and services, Client agrees hereby agrees that: (1) the terms and conditions set forth at <https://www.paloaltonetworks.com/legal/cula> (as may be updated by Palo Alto Networks from time to time) apply to the Palo Alto Networks products and services (the "Palo Alto Networks Terms") and Palo Alto Networks may enforce such Palo Alto Networks Terms directly; and (2) Binary Defense is not responsible, and disclaims all liability, for Palo Alto Networks or the Palo Alto Networks products and services, including, without limitation, for any loss, damage, or liability relating to (or arising from) Palo Alto Networks or the Palo Alto Networks products and services.

Binary Defense has the right to audit and monitor Client's use of the Services. If Binary Defense determines that Client's use of (or Binary Defense's use on behalf of Client) any Palo Alto Networks products and services exceeds the contracted for amount (e.g., GBs, license quantity, etc.), as specified in the quote, Binary Defense has the right to immediately invoice Client at Binary Defense's then-current rates for the full overage amount as of the applicable invoice date.
